Education:

Praise

* Marcy chaperoned a brigade to Los Encinitos with two Discovery school students (Katarina was one of the translators). 623 patients from over 40 villages were treated. Marcy worked in triage and had to bring one baby to the hospital 2 hours away.

Most beneficial from the seminar:

* "It encouraged me to know that God does not chase need, otherwise there would not be any. Now, I can search for what gives me joy instead of getting discouraged by the need that surrounds me."

* "I definitely felt that I was perishing without vision (felt scattered, lazy, and without purpose), but then the last session on communication showed me my part in our ministry."

* "This was so applicable in this season in my life."

* "I thought the hands on activities were most beneficial because they guided us right into getting things accomplished."

Word of God:

* Marcy taught the Run the Race Seminar in La Moskitia. Mikayla helped with the kids.

* Kjell was invited, by the maintenance man at school, to preach at his church (Padre Nuestro, Our Father). There were about 10 youth and 20 adults.

* Marcy shared a devotional at a Pastoral/Leadership Conference as well as sang harmony for the worship (in Spanish). Best part was helping a missionary live her dream of leading worship!

Helping Ministries:

- * Housed and drove around Laura and Cumi as they got a visa for Cumi Joy. It was amazing to see the favor of God in the process.
- * Marcy helped gather instruments for worship team for the Women of Purpose retreat as well as drove and housed missionaries before and after the retreat.
- * We helped Schools of Hope with the Christmas gift project. Marcy drove gifts from the store to the office. Then, Mikayla and Rebekah helped her wrap gifts. Then, Jeremiah went to the school and handed the 60+ gifts out.

Connecting:

* Marcy attended Project Honduras (in Copan) and shared the Honduran Fellowship as well as gathered information for missionaries (NGO's, selling products, safety, etc.). Files were created and added to the HFMM Group.

General:

Prayer

Cumi's mom died at birth

Education:

* Doors to open for Run the Race seminars in other locations, vision consultations, and direction for the missionary youth group.

Helping Ministries & Connecting:
