Volume 2014, Issue 2

Education:

Praise

- * This year's Gala and Chronicles of Discovery Literary and Art Magazine were a huge success. Katarina and Mikayla were nominated for awards and Mikayla won best Pointilism. Katarina performed a song and emceed, just like at the Oscars.

Word of God:

- * I went to a Member Care Training in PA and am using what I learned to prepare materials for the Answer the Call Training and Care Center (see insert) as well as develop a member care program for the Honduran Fellowship.
- * I conducted 3 vision mapping consultations. One helped a missionary set boundaries and redefine her ministry role to stay within a ministry; one gave direction for a future ministry direction; and the last ended up a session on priorities (setting God 1st over ministry). It was pretty intense, but I received a good response, "Thanks so much for talking with me the other day. God is good and is using you in mighty ways."
- * Out of 3 crisis incidents that have come up (a car accident & two robberies), I was able to conduct a crisis debriefing with one missionary. She is doing very well and is even going to stay in Honduras transitioning from teacher to missionary work.
- * I taught the Change/Transition class to a group of teachers outside of the city. Some of the teachers who were dealing with being homesick and having relationship issues were able to see what was transition related.

Helping Ministries:

- * I helped the Honduran Fellowship create job descriptions and procedures and am now working on the front office manual, policies, and contingency plans.
- * I was asked to share member care information with another ministry who is also developing a member care department. It was recognized that the organization is unhealthy, so they are working out what they can and will focus on first.

Connecting:

- * I brought in a guest speaker to talk on 'Hiring, Building Up, and Firing Staff' for Fellowship members. It is an area many ministries need help with and the information was great. We will post handouts and video soon for others to see.
- * First time ever, the Honduran Fellowship was asked to help a missionary couple looking for where God wants them to serve in Honduras. I created a Missionary Scouting booklet and took them to four different ministries (a homeless ministry in the city, our English speaking church, a ministry out in the country with a church and clinic, and then a discipleship college at a church).

Prayer

- * Kjell did not get the director position at Discovery, but was offered an opportunity to be a Curriculum Coordinator for another school. Pray he would hear from God on what decision to make (since this would be a transition for us all too).
- * Pray for an upcoming basic website class being offered for Fellowship members.
- * Pray for our trip to the States (itinerary included). We can't wait to see you—make sure you come see us!

Special Report

The ATC TCC is not a physical location (as of now), but is more of a list of member care services provided to equip missionaries for the work of ministry. Member care involves prevention, intervention, and crisis care. As I work to create a Member Care program for the Honduran Fellowship, I will also be able to use these resources for any missionary or ministries that need care.

You can get involved by:

- * PRAYER (for our family, ministry, Honduran Fellowship, missionaries and ministries, and Hondurans they serve);
- * ENCOURAGEMENT (response to newsletters, emails, like and comment on the facebook page) and
- * GIVING: monthly (for in country travel, training funds, books, crisis care); one time (upcoming permanent residency costs for our family of $5-6,000); and future (mobile care vehicle or property, staff, expansion throughout Central America). You can also give by buying Hope Coffee. It ships from Texas and 6% goes towards our ministry.

Change in Donation Processing

We have recently decided to switch to a Missionary Service Agency (World Outreach Ministries, WOM) to handle our donations. We are still part of Anchor Bay Evangelical Association (for covering, ordination, conferences when in the States, etc.), however WOM can provide additional services such as online donations, access to online reports, and a receipt letter with a return envelope and coupon for easy response. [Note: There is a 10% fee for these services.]

All donations are tax deductible.
